Mines and Minerals

T. J. Carrigan, president of the Clara Gold and Copper company, is in from the company's properties in the Bill Williams Fork section, with a sack of as rich gold bearing ore as was ever brought into Prescott. The gold shows well on every surface of many of the pieces, while others which are also rich in gold are well stained with copper. The claims are located twelve miles from Wenden, on the line of the A. & C. railway, the advent of which road has caused miners and prospectors to invade a mineral section seldom before visited and but little prospected. Mr. Carrigan has shipped nine sacks of this ore to Los Angeles, and it is safe to say that it will cause some little mining excitement when it arrives there and its value becomes known. Mr. Carrigan says the ledge has been cross cut for 140 feet and there is no wall in sight yet. Five blanket formations of ore have been cut through in this distance, each one lying below the other, and all are rich in gold. The copper ore comes from the lowest ore zone or blanket formation. All the ore has a different appearance from the average ores of this section. So far as developed it is certainly a remarkable property.

In an item about the Ora Plata mine, Todd Basin, the Mohave Miner states that up to 1470 it was reported to have produced $500,000 in gold and silver and has produced as much more since that time. The assorted ores ran as high as 20 ounces gold and 100 ounces silver per ton. The average shipping ore of the mine was about three ounces gold and from 40 to 60 ounces silver to the ton. The tonnage of ore from the property was very great, although the workings are still very shallow, the main shaft having attained a depth of but 280 feet. At the present time the mine is equipped with a steam hoisting plant, compressor and machine drills, and all necessary equipment for deep work. In the old workings there is a large tonnage of milling ore, while the new work shows the vein to still carry the rich values carried nearer the surface.

D. J. Sullivan, the county assessor of Yavapai county, spent part of the week in Congress looking over the properties of the Alaska Gold Mining company. He has made contracts for the assessment work to be done on the Cleveland and Ohio claims, which he several miles from the main properties of the company. Mr. Sullivan said that he had just returned from a trip to Los Angeles and that the Alaska company is getting on its feet in good shape now. If the Alaska is not gotten on its feet the rest of the prospects in this section may as well quit the business, as there is a fine showing on that property, and there is every indication that they have a second Congress.—News Herald.

Visitors who have been at the property of the Rincon mine, of late, report a wonderful showing and plenty of improvements going on at the mine. The members of the company from the east are getting interested in the matter to a greater extent than ever before and are making visits to the property. Yesterday morning E. P. Vogels and L. J. McCloskey, members of the company, came in from Philadelphia, and went out to the property. They will see plenty of things to convince them that the property is all right and that they have a good mine out there.—News Herald.

S. W. Haines, secretary of the Gila Gold Lode company, arrived last night from the White Tanks mining district. He reports that miners working on the Union mine, owned by Fred H. Volz, Jr., of this city, have encountered some high grade ore on new workings.—Arizona Gazette.

C. B. Genuing, the pioneer miner, is in from the Quartzite section. He saw at Salome about 300 head of horses and mules to be used in pushing the A. & C. grade westward. Mr. Genuing is shipping ore from his mining property in the Harqua Hais, five miles from Wenden, and twelve miles from Cullen's. The ore is free gold.

F. A. Bowman, of the Rainbow Mining company, is in from the company's properties in the Bradshaw mountains, and was a welcome caller at this office yesterday. He has a tunnel in several hundred feet on one of the company's claims, has a strong ore body and good ore.

Honest Jim Sellers is moving the big hoist and pump from Cherry station to the Cornucopia mine in Ash creek district. The management has stated that at an early date they would be taking out ore which they intend having treated at the Humboldt smelter.

For the past two days, great loads of machinery from the old 10-stamp Silver Flake mill at Groom creek have been slowly moving through town on its way to its new destination in Cherry creek, on the Arizona Gold Mines property. R. H. Burmister, manager.

A. R. Dickey is in from the Bradshaw mountains. He is owner of the Spring Green mine, a parallel vein of the Gladiator. He has plenty of good grade copper ore on his mine dumps and a great deal more exposed on the property.

George B. Scammell, of the George Byron Scammell Investment company, Los Angeles, writes that he "hopes to see dear old Arizona again—this time to lay out work for the starting up of the mine."

It is stated that the Oriental people now have their tunnel in 4,000 feet, and 400 feet farther on an uprise will be made from it to connect with the Little tunnel.—Prescott Courier.

NAVAJOS CELEBRATING THANKSGIVING

The annual thanksgiving day of the Navajo Indians is now being celebrated by the tribe on their reservation in the northwest part of the territory and the red men are having a big time. The Navajos began dancing last night and the celebration will continue for several days. The past year has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the tribe. The Indians have sold their wool for a big price, their crops have been good and all are in fine shape for the coming winter. The Indian nation given the dance is Yavapai, meaning thanksgiving for the goodness of the great spirit. A large number of tourists have been passing into the reservation during the past few days to witness the dance.

SPAIN'S KING LEFT TO VISIT GERMANY

Madrid, Oct. 31.—King Alfonso accompanied by Premier General Montero Rios, and a large suite, started yesterday on a long planned visit to Germany. Nothing definite is known concerning the object of the visit, but as it follows so closely after the visit of President Loubet to Spain, the king's visit is believed to be more in the way of a diplomatic mission than a mere friendly visit. The king will remain in Berlin from November 6th to November 12th, and an elaborate program for his entertainment has been prepared, including festivities at the court, a military review and a hunt.

OFFICIAL MATTERS

Postmasters Appointed.
John McCaffery has been appointed postmaster at Kirkland, Arizona, and Benjamin F. Morris at Santa Cruz, Santa Fe county, New Mexico.
Manfor Romero has been appointed postmaster at Pisco, Socorro county, New Mexico.
Postoffice to be Established.
Delegate to Congress W. H. Andrews has recommended to the postoffice department for establishment, a postoffice at Brownhorn, Roosevelt county, Miss Allie Montgomery to be postmaster.
Postoffice Re-Established.
The postoffice at Torreon, Torreon county, will be re-established. It will be served from Tijuque, two and a half miles to the north and Mazza-no seven miles to the south. Juan C. Jaramillo has been appointed postmaster.

New National Bank at Texico.
The comptroller of the currency has approved the establishment of the First National bank at Texico, Roosevelt county, with $25,000 capital. The applicants are Joseph B. Sledge, Arthur F. Jones, John S. Pearce, Hobson F. Jones and J. W. Jones.

May Abolish Office of Receiver.
Secretary of the Interior E. A. Hitchcock, in his annual report, will recommend to congress the abolishment of the office of receiver at federal land offices. He argues that the work at present done by receivers can be done just as well by the register of the land office. The abolishment of the office would save a quarter million dollars annually in salaries. This will be in line with the policy to consolidate different land offices that has been adopted and that is being carried out.

"UNCLE JOSE SPRUCEBY" AND HIS HAYSEED BAND

There is the fragrant perfume of the apple blossoms and the clover all through the story of "Uncle Jose Spruceby," and one seems to breathe the balmy air of the country, as the many interesting scenes are being enjoyed. You must see this play and see how much better you feel after witnessing the scenes on the old farm, and the natural acting of a company of capable actors. You will find the comedy the genuine article, and no matter how old a theatergoer you may be, you will smile, and smile loudly, at the many clever lines and funny situations with which the play abounds. At the Elks' theater Wednesday night, November 1.

"THE CHAPERONS" HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Long after Isidore Witmark and Frederick Rankin, the authors of "The Chaperons," that will be seen at the Elks' theater Thursday night, November 2, had completed the libretto and music of the piece, and in fact during the rehearsals and up to within two weeks of their first performance, they were having their troubles with the name. No sooner was the name given out with the original spelling, "The Chaperons," than it was quickly discovered that there were thirteen letters in it, and of course something must be done at once. The most obvious remedy was to drop the final "e," making it read as it does now, "Chaperons." This immediately started a discussion in the dramatic papers, it being claimed that as the word "chaperone" was feminine in gender, it must have the final "e," and any other spelling of the word would be wrong. At last the much mooted question was settled when Mr. Rankin came out with the statement that the "Chaperons" he was talking about in the piece were of the masculine gender, and not intended for young ladies' seminaries or anything else that was feminine. When the public got a chance to see "The Chaperons," the universal verdict was that the piece was so good that it really did not matter how the spelling went.

Ruth Lloyd, with "The Chaperons," at the Elks' Theater Thursday night, November 2.

Each year since it has increased in popularity, and the songs are as catchy and the fun as bright and wholesome this season as they ever were. Like all good things, it improves with age. The company this year is said to be larger and better than ever before, and the production is entirely new, new scenery, new costumes and new everything.

HEALTH EXERCISES

MOVEMENT NO. 5.

Lie down on your back, hold your arms over your chest, and endeavor to rise to a sitting position without lifting the feet from the floor, keeping them together. This cannot usually be done until the back muscles have been strengthened, and it will be necessary to put the tips of your toes under a bureau to assist in rising. Later use a chair, or some lighter thing, gradually diminishing the amount of assistance as you find yourself able to rise to a sitting posture. This movement should be combined with No. 6, as will be explained. It is too exhausting to be attempted in rapid succession, for seven 10 times, and need not be done as often as the others, if it seems advisable not to.

Exercise to improve the digestion, reduce the waist measure, insure a correct carriage, and lengthen the waist.

Each should be performed 50 times per day.

Open the window and wear clothing that will not in the least hamper the muscles.

Full of Tragic Meaning are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, which disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At all druggists; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable and the only food combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by all druggists.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment. Fifty cents, at any drug store.
